Check on Harriman
Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Uncle Sam's attorneys have discovered a clause that they can wield over the Harriman interests in the charter of the Union Pacific road. This clause appears twofold at the present time under the recent rate commission. The discovery was made in the search for the cause of the merger of the Harriman interests with the Illinois Central road. The clause discovered is as follows:

The Charter
The act of Congress chartering the Union Pacific provides: "That whenever it appears that the net earnings of the entire road and telegraph, including the amount allowed for services rendered for the United States after deducting all expenses, including repairs and the furnishing, running and managing of said road, shall exceed 10 per centum upon its cost, exclusive of the 5 per centum to be paid to the United States, congress may reduce the fare thereon by law." Provisions still in effect.

When a reorganization of the system was effected some years ago the government waived its 5 per centum share in the earnings of the road, but

NEW PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD MEETS

First Convention Being Held in Indianapolis—Organization
Very Elastic.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 12.—The first convention of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, an organization planned to include all men's societies in the Presbyterian church, began a three days' session in Indianapolis today. The general assembly of the Presbyterian church, at the recent meeting in Des Moines, declared in favor of the organization of the brotherhood, and a committee of five pastors and five prominent laymen was appointed to arrange for the organization of all existing men's societies in the church into one big society. The work of the committee was successful as is evidenced by the large and representative attendance at the present convention. It is proposed to make the Presbyterian Brotherhood broader than the similar organizations of other denominations. The Young Men's Guild of the Church of Scotland, is said to be the ideal on which the new organization will be based. It was organized in 1851, and it unites all societies, Bible classes and associated bodies for young men and old, connected with the Church of Scotland. In the Presbyterian Brotherhood the organization of local branches will be made as elastic as circumstances or requirements of any congregation may require. It is proposed to build up a systematic and compact body which will also reach all the men of the Cumberland church, which after next year will be a part of the church in the north.

UNIFORM DIVORCE LAWS READY FOR CONGRESS

National Conference of Lawyers, Clergymen And Men of Affairs---Wisconsin One Year Clause Recommended.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 12.—Lawyers, clergymen and men of affairs, representing many states, assembled at the Bellevue-Stratford in this city today at the opening of the second meeting of the National Congress of Uniform Divorce Laws. The attendance was larger and of a more representative character than that of the first meeting, which was held in Washington last spring. The present meeting, which will be in session several days, is to consider the draft of a statute which the congress will seek to have adopted in every state of the union. The statute was drafted by a committee of eminent lawyers, jurists and prominent clergymen, all of whom are conversant with the so-called divorce evil.

The act is divided into three chapters; the first consists of jurisdictional provisions; the second procedure; and the third general provisions, and is entitled "An act regulating annulment of marriage and divorce." While little or no change is made in the given causes for divorce as now existing, certain provisions were evidently made with a view of arresting the increasing demand for legal severance of marital bonds. Under these provisions secret or "star-chamber" sessions for hearing divorce cases before masters or other representatives of the courts are done away with, and all hearings and trials shall be held before the court, and in all cases be public. It is also provided that a decree dissolving the marriage tie so completely as to permit the remarriage of either party shall not become operative until the lapse of a reasonable time after hearing or trial upon the merits of the case. The Wisconsin, Illinois and California rule of one year is recommended.

Another part of the proposed law prohibits the solicitation of a divorce case by advertisement, circular or otherwise, and prescribes for such an offense a fine of not more than $1,000 and imprisonment of not more than one year. Annulment of the marriage contract, as distinguished from divorce, will be made for the following causes: Impotency, consanguinity, existing former marriage, fraud, force or coercion, insanity and illegal age.

Divorce, it is provided, shall be of two kinds—absolute, and divorce from bed and board. Under the first classification the grounds shall be adultery, bigamy, conviction and sentence for crime, followed by two years continuous imprisonment, extreme cruelty, wilful desertion, and habitual drunkenness for two years. The same cause will prevail in the second class with the additional cause of "hopeless insanity of the husband." No divorce shall be granted if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the suit has been brought by collusion or that the plaintiff has secured or connived at the offense charged, or has condoned it or has been guilty of adultery not condoned. The new law also makes some important changes in the practice and procedure in divorce cases and their trial.

REPUDIATION OF THE PRESIDENT

SUCH IS POST-ELECTION CONCLUSION OF FORAKER MAN.

NO MORE THIRD TERM TALK

Democrats Were Disappointed in Congressional Results, But Hope for Future.

(By William Wolf Smith.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—(Special Correspondence.)—I have been trying to figure out which party can draw the most consolation out of the late election, and which can build up the greatest hopes for the future, and have about reached the conclusion that so far as consolation is concerned it is a drawn battle. While it may not indicate very strongly what may be expected two years hence, in a party way, it is likely to have a very decided influence on individual hopes and prospects, and it is more than probable it will eliminate from the public mind several distinguished gentlemen who have been looking longingly forward to the time when presidential lightning would strike in their doorway.

In considering the matter of consolation the first thought turns towards the President, for the republican, almost wholly on the ground that the President must be sustained by the choosing of a re-election, it mattered not whether the candidate was a stand-patter or a revolutionist, a strenuous advocate of the old measures, or whether he was lukewarm in that direction, or was absolutely on the other side of the fence, still his election was urged as being an endorsement by the people of the President.

With this view of the case the President can find but little consolation. Among the strong republicans beaten can be counted Babcock, Wadsworth, Lacey and McCreary. It was not expected the republicans would be able to hold all the seats they won in the tidal wave of 1904, but still they will have a majority big enough for all practical purposes, and the new congress may be able to work out some reforms along republican lines. In the congressional republicans the democrats have been sorely disappointed, for they had flung themselves up to the belief that a dissatisfaction with Roosevelt and Roosevelt methods prevailed throughout the country, and was so deep-seated that it would show itself very clearly at the polls. The conservative leaders of that party did not expect to secure a majority in the next house, but they did believe they would be able to push the republicans very close. The republican majority is much larger than they expected it to be, yet they see in the outcome much hope for the future.

There has been an effort here to conceal the fact that the result in New York is a sore disappointment to the President, but the effort has not been a success, and those close to the White House know the President feels deeply disappointed. Looking at the conservative side of the election it is not a republican triumph. It is only a protest against the doctrines advocated by Hearst. Hearst was not defeated by the republicans, but by the revolt in his own party, led by McCarran, and McCarran is not so much opposed to the doctrines of Hearst as opposed to Hearst personally. With the fact staring the people of the country in the face that Hearstism would have been successful in New York, had not personal enmity stepped in his way, will cause much hesitation and much heavy thinking between now and the election in 1908. Here, in Washington, the result in New York is looked upon as a decided setback to the President. It being his own state, and he having taken such a deep interest as to send his premier into the state, loaded and primed with a speech that had been prepared under his own supervision, and declared by Mr. Root as being spoken by the authority of the President. The friends of Foraker, Shaw, Cannon and Fairbanks look upon the New York result as eliminating Mr. Roosevelt as a possibility of two years hence, and claim that it will end all talk of a third term. They point to the fact that New York disappointed all expectations, while Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana, the states of Foraker, Cannon and Fairbanks, did much more than was expected of them. A leader of the Foraker men puts it in this way: "New York is the home of Roosevelt; he has been practically repudiated; Ohio is the home of Foraker and Dick, who openly opposed some of the pet measures of the President, and the people there endorsed the two senators by a magnificent vote; Indiana is the home of Fairbanks, and there the result is largely due to the great popularity of the vice-president. In those two states Roosevelt did not figure, while in New York he was the only issue." This may or may not be a true summing up of the situation, but it will put the people to thinking.

It is evident that Mr. Hearst has been eliminated as a possible nominee of the democrats for President, but it is by no means certain that the peculiar doctrines advocated by him have been eliminated. It is certain, however, that at this time those doctrines have not taken a strong hold on the rural districts, but they have seized upon the public sentiment in the great cities, and their hold there is growing stronger year by year. The democratic state ticket stood on the platform of Hearst, and with more or less strength, endorsed his doctrines, and the tremendous vote polled by it, notwithstanding Hearst's defeat, is an evidence of the strength of the Hearst idea of governmental policy. It must be taken this way, or admitted to be a rebuke by the voters of the President and his methods. In either case it furnishes food for reflection. Eliminating Mr. Hearst as a possible candidate will bring forward Mr. Bryan once more. There is another result, however, and that is the eyes of the democratic party will turn more and more to the south for the next leader. The south is practically solid. It stands for the very best there is in democratic policies; the party there is getting the idea that the time has come to assert itself, and the selection of a candidate from that section

WEALTHY SOCIALIST STUDIES FARMING

Joseph Medill Patterson Enrolls at State University in the Agricultural Short Course.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—Joseph Medill Patterson, the young millionaire socialist, whose meteoric career in Chicago politics last year ending as it did in his conversion to the doctrines of socialism, attracted national attention, has enrolled as a student in the short course in agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Patterson is a grandson of Joseph Medill, founder of the Chicago Tribune, and is a graduate of Yale. After completing his college course, he returned to Chicago, where he was appointed commissioner of public work by Mayor Dunne. He at once began a vigorous crusade against numerous private interests which had encroached upon public property without authority, and succeeded in collecting thousands of dollars of rental for the city of Chicago. In the midst of his work of reform, he became convinced of the hopelessness of the struggle under present conditions, and tendering his resignation to Mayor Dunne, announced his espousal of the cause of socialism. His determination to study agriculture at the University of Wisconsin this winter is evidently the result of his recognition of the importance of a return of a large part of the population to farming, as the only solution for the evils of congested life in large cities.

Mr. Patterson is the second young millionaire to take advantage of the instruction of the short course in agriculture at the state university. Last year Fred Babst, son of the late Capt. Paul of Milwaukee, resigned his position in the management of the great brewery interest with which his name has long been associated, and decided to take up the raising of blooded horses as his occupation. Accordingly he entered the short course last winter, and took special work in the breeding and care of horses. Upon completing his work last spring, he purchased a ranch of several thousand acres in Dakota, and imported hundreds of the finest Russian horses. Since then he has been busily engaged in developing this new line of work, which promises to prove an exceedingly profitable one.

"Back to the Farm," Says Hill.
These interesting recognitions of the possibility of developing farming as an attractive and very profitable occupation are in line with the recent declaration of James J. Hill that our national prosperity in the future will depend upon agriculture. "A clear recognition on the part of the whole people," said Mr. Hill, "from the highest down to the lowest, that the tillage of the soil is the natural and most desirable occupation for man, to which every other is subsidiary and to which all else must in the end yield, is the first requisite for our future national prosperity. With public interest firmly fixed upon the future, the country, in mere self-preservation, must give serious attention to the practical occupation of restoring agriculture to its due position in the nation. Declare everywhere, from the executive chamber, from the editorial office, from the platform, and above all from every college classroom, that from every little schoolhouse in the land, the new crusade. Let the zeal for discovery, for experiment, for scientific advancement that has made the last century one of multiplied wonders focus itself upon the problems of the oldest of sciences and arts, the cornerstone of civilization, the improvement of tillage and making our soil grow where only one grew before."

Many Students Enroll.
The interest in better methods of farming in Wisconsin is shown by the large preliminary enrollment in the short course in agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. Already nearly 300 young men have registered and it is anticipated that the attendance will reach 400 when the course opens on December 1.

WAS COMBINE MADE IN PHONE FIGHTS?

Independent Telephone Companies Win Victory in Milwaukee Council.

For a year past two independent telephone companies have been fighting for a franchise in Milwaukee. In directly Janesville was interested in the contest through the fact that Richard Valentine was a stockholder and director in the Milwaukee Independent Telephone Co. and Don Farnsworth and Frank L. Bills, both former residents, were promoters of the Milwaukee Automatic Telephone company. The Milwaukee Independent company won yesterday and Mayor Becker has signed the franchise and it is now rumored in the Cream City that a compromise has been made so that one phone company gets the franchise and the other company furnishes the instruments.

THE PUZZLE EDITOR IS THE BUSY MAN

All Answers Will be Published in Time—Take Pains With Working of Solutions.

These are busy days for the Skidoo Puzzle Editor. He receives daily many solutions to the famous puzzle and goes over all of them carefully. He has many perplexities in a way and many amusing occurrences. He finds contestants are giving more thought to the solution of the puzzle, using more care in placing their solutions on paper. The successful contestants will be those who pay particular heed to the wording and general appearance of their answers. The Skidoo problem requires delicate, careful thought, it cannot be solved in a moment of time. Some of the answers sent to the Puzzle Editor show lack of painstaking consideration while others, and it may be said the larger share, indicate care and thought. An inquiry from one contestant asks why her solution had not appeared in the paper. The Puzzle Editor cannot publish all the answers at once but hopes to handle most of them in due course of time. The interest in the Skidoo problem is becoming widespread. The Agricultural College of Michigan is wrestling with it and one of the classes have forwarded an answer. If you have failed to send in your solution, do so now.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL

CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTED LAST EVENING.

ELECTION COST CITY $345

Just for Clerks and Inspectors' Fees—Ald. Fish Scored Loafing on Part of City Employees.

While the finance committee's report on bills was under consideration at the regular meeting of the city council last evening, Alderman Fish arose to protest against the sort of service which three men employed in digging dirt in the first ward were giving the city. It was outrageous, he thought, that they should be paid good wages for throwing out five or six yards a day and accomplishing little more by untold effort than would be expected of one able-bodied man under private employment. He also mentioned certain expenditures used by a teamster to kill time, which had come under observation. It seemed to him that a mistake had been made in not adopting the ward foreman on inspection idea advocated by Ald. Merrill early in the season. The committee, and the city attorney asked for and were granted further time for the consideration of a communication from Kate E. Welch in which she asks that $203.85 in taxes paid under protest on property of the estate of Thomas E. Welch, deceased, given as money but in reality real estate mortgages and exempt from taxation, be returned to her. The reimbursement of the American Express Co. to the extent of $63.99 for a personal property tax illegally assessed was authorized. City Treasurer J. A. Fathens' report for October was received and placed on file. Likewise the municipal court and board of education reports for the same month.

Concerned with the Highways.
Through its chairman, Ald. Skeridan, the highway committee recommended that the city of Janesville issue special street improvement bonds to the amount of $1,004.70 for that portion of the cost of improvements on North and South River streets which property holders had not elected to pay; also $203.91 for the arrears about the postoffice; that the treasurer and mayor be authorized to sell these bonds to the highest bidder; that the clerk be authorized to sign and deliver to A. E. Rutledge & Co. the certificates issued for the improvement of the above-mentioned streets and alleys; that the clerk draw on the treasurer in favor of A. E. Rutledge & Co. for $68.58 payable from the first ward fund and $984.97 payable from the fourth ward fund; the same being the amounts due from the ward funds for the improvements aforesaid. All of these recommendations embodied in resolutions were passed, the schedules of assessments prepared by the clerk having been previously convinced and adopted. Supt. Geo. T. Croft reported that the output of the stone crusher for the two weeks ending Nov. 10, was 158 yards. Report accepted. The city engineer reported that the cost of reconstruction of the Lovejoy culvert in the Washington street wash-out was $2,145.60 and that of the Mole culvert extension, $585.48. The reports were received and placed on file.

Brick Sewer Instead of Tile.
Harding & Nelson, contractors who are to build the sewer on South Main street, asked for permission to substitute brick construction work for the stipulated 27, 33, and 36 inch tile. Chairman Hager of the committee on sewers asked and was granted further time for the consideration of this request. John Plowright was granted permission to move four rods of standard railway sidetrack owned by him from the center of South River street and to lay the same parallel to the present track in front of his coal and wood yard on the east side of that

HAPPY RESULTS OBTAINED.

By the Use of the New Scalp, Anti-septic.
It wouldn't take long to number the hairs in the heads of some people, the reason being they haven't many to number. In most instances, however, the fault is their own. A germ at the root soon plays havoc with the most luxuriant growth and causes it to fade and fall out. A remedy for this has recently been discovered called Newbro's Herpicide, that acts by destroying the germ that does the damage, besides removing all impurities from the scalp. In addition it permits new life and vigor to enter the scalp, and happy results are sure to be obtained from its use. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. THE CHICAGO SCHOOLS

The Chicago schools are attracting widespread attention today, because of the peculiar conditions which surround them. Superintendent Cooley, recognized as one of the best educators in the land, is rapidly becoming a figurehead, and the Teachers' Federation, which is nothing more or less than a labor union, is in control.

This culmination of events has a history which dates back to the time when Margaret Haley, president of the federation, and her secretary, Miss Goggin, inaugurated and conducted a successful campaign against tax-dodging corporations in Chicago, which resulted in enriching the city treasury by some $600,000.

The object of the crusade was to supply the school board with funds to reimburse the teachers on a salary cut, which had occurred the year before, but the funds were diverted into other channels.

This aroused the sympathy of organized labor, and the Teachers' Federation was invited to affiliate. Miss Haley was quick to recognize the advantages, for she was a politician, and wanted votes, so the invitation was accepted.

She enjoys the distinction of having elected Mayor Dunne, through her influence with organized labor, and the mayor does not question her right to the honor. In fact, he recognizes it to the extent of permitting her to name his school board.

And what a board it is—socialists, labor agitators, single-tax apostles, and everything else that contributes to the welfare of the Teachers' Federation, without regard to the schools.

One of the first reforms adopted was to demand the recognition of organized labor by requiring all textbooks to bear the union label. An advisory board, to be composed of cranks from all parts of the country, is about to take the place of the board of district superintendents, and various other radical measures are close to the surface.

Miss Haley and the Teachers' Federation are today in control of the Chicago schools, and they are being run exclusively in the interests of the teachers.

This must be gratifying to the parents, as well as the taxpayers. The public schools are supposed to be for the masses, but the public schools of Chicago today are more distinctly for the classes than any parochial school in existence.

They are manned and run in the interests of organized labor, the most tyrannical trust that the country knows anything about. If permitted to go on without let or hindrance, the next generation from Chicago will be full-fledged unionists and agitators before graduation day.

It is about time that the intelligent people of Chicago took matters in hand and established Americanism in place of Haleyism in the public schools.

A SOCIALIST UTOPIA

By the way, the socialists are going to make a bold bid to capture the municipal machinery of London at the forthcoming elections in November (Borough council) and March (London county council). The Utopia pictured by the apostles of the greater municipalism is a very ambitious one. It includes the abolition of middlemen and contractor's profits in connection with public supplies, food for London workhouse to be grown on municipal farms, where the unemployed can find work; municipal cows to supply the best municipal milk; and municipal hens to lay the biggest (and freshest) municipal eggs. Garden cities with municipal gymnasia, concerts, and theatres are also in the air; but the latest example of municipal management is not calculated to help these visionaries. The London county council steamboats, whose season ends next Tuesday, have taken nearly $50,000 from the ratepayers' pockets during the year, and it is considered doubtful whether they will ever run again.—London Daily Mail.

This is on a par with what the same crowd are attempting to do for the unemployed. They propose to establish a four-hour work day, on all public work, and employ two men to do one man's work at double the price. That would be a fine scheme for developing genteel pauperism. It is surprising how fertile the human brain is, when it comes to devising ways and means for spending the other fellow's money.

The Methodist preachers of Chicago are a good deal stirred up over the condition of the public schools in that city. There is occasion for it, and all good people should share in the agitation.

The defeat of Babcock, Beach and Boden is regarded by La Follette as a victory. When a man is down he is easily satisfied.

The Mary Ann amendment to the primary law was lost, but Connor appeared to survive the shock.

They have the sympathy of numerous friends in their trouble.

STUDENTS TALK ON NEXT SEASON'S GAME
University Students Rejoice at Chance to Play With Chicago

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Nov. 12.—Because Michigan and Minnesota did not do good and break their contracts with Coaches Yost and Williams, and live up to the spirit of the purity rules as laid down by the intercollegiate faculty conference, we will not play football with them; but because Chicago keeps Professor Stagg, a faculty coach, we will try to play with the maroons next year.

This seems to be the attitude of the faculty committee on athletics at the University of Wisconsin. It is held that Chicago and Wisconsin are pure and regenerated, but that Michigan and Minnesota, the other two members of the "big four," violated the conference agreement by retaining their professional, non-faculty coaches. Negotiations are to be opened with the Chicago authorities for a game next year, either at Chicago or Madison, and as soon as the full measure of agreement with the conference reforms, Wisconsin will be willing to treat with them for a revival of the western intercollegiate football schedule.

Students here would like to have the old schedule back next season, but are overjoyed even for the prospect of a game with Chicago. With Ekersall out of the game next season, the Wisconsin-Chicago contest would be one of the best imaginable, and the badgers are strongly of the opinion that they could defeat the midway aggregation. Another source of joy in the cardinal camp this week is the possibility of having Dr. Charles McCarthy, the inventor of the new plays that saved the badger bacon this season as head football coach next season. By hiring him, the Wisconsin faculty would not be violating the conference rule, for Dr. McCarthy has now a faculty standing as a lecturer and one of the officials of the correspondence department.

Coach Hutchins is highly regarded; but it is recognized that he will be overworked if he must do all the athletic coaching in addition to managing the teams, and it was he who first made the suggestion of needing assistance. He is said to be more able at coaching baseball and track teams than at football and would doubtless handle these teams along except for some help from Assistant Professor E. D. Angell. Some students are inclined to think that Wisconsin is wise to await the departure of Yost and Williams before tackling Michigan and Minnesota.

Longs For the Flesh Pots.
Madison Democrat: Shullsburg wants Sunday newspapers. But Shullsburg doesn't know when it's well off. Sunday newspapers are no advantage to a sane and quiet observation of the one day of rest which we have, especially those foreign Sunday papers which are padded full of tiresome guff not worth the reading. Shullsburg is blest beyond the meed of most places in its immunity from invasion on the Sabbath by the big blanket sheets laid about over the town, and even at church doors, by blatant boys who might better be at home.

The Apollo Club's Concert This Evening Will be Very Largely Attended.

While there are plenty of excellent seats in the Myers theatre for tonight's concert, the advance sale has been exceptionally large showing that Janesville appreciates the endeavors of The Apollo Club in bringing such a coterie of musical artists together for an evening's entertainment as will be assembled tonight. This morning the decorations are being put in place by J. M. Bostwick & Sons under the personal direction of R. M. Bostwick, Jr. C. S. Putnam and the Janesville Electric company are doing their share and the stage tonight will be most artistically arranged. Every seat in the house is excellent for hearing, and the delightful music that will be rendered and the theatre itself is noted for its acoustic properties. Members are cautioned to bring their membership tickets with them not only when securing their seats but to present at the door. It will be the society event of the winter and a most delightful evening is anticipated.

reveals the fact that people who became my patients years ago when I first began to practice Dentistry in Janesville are my patients today.

And not only them, but their children and neighbors.

I know that they will be my friends during the years to come.

Because I have done my best to give them the best possible services at reasonable living prices.

In my association with people I find that they want 3 things in their Dentist:

Good work,
Painless work, and Moderate prices.

These 3 demands I study to meet and will be pleased to demonstrate to you.

COUNTY BOARD & GOOD ROADS MEN

ASSEMBLED AT THE COURT HOUSE TODAY.

SUPERVISORS ARE TO ACT

On the Matter of Amendment Permitting State Aid Which is to Come

Up Before Legislature.

The county board of supervisors met this afternoon at the Court House with S. S. Jones of Clinton in the chair. Before the regular business of the session was commenced the board listened to Capt. Pliny Norcross, president of the Rock County Good Roads Association, Senator Whitehead, and A. A. Jackson. Capt. Norcross asked for some sort of an expression of sentiment on the part of the board as to what stand the assemblymen should take on the proposed state constitutional amendment permitting state aid for the construction of highways. Senator Whitehead reiterated the request and read the proposed amendment. Mr. Jackson gave an interesting talk on the methods of procedure adopted in several of the states which were originally prevented by their constitutions from giving aid to road building. On motion the chair appointed a committee of three supervisors to confer with the Good Roads representatives and report during the present session. The report of the trustees of the county asylum and poor farm was then taken up.

TALE OF A TURKEY; STOLEN, THEN LOST

William Collins of Lima and Partner Paid $37.85 and Then Had No Feast.

William Collins of the town of Lima was fined $2 and costs amounting to $7.35 in municipal court today, having been charged and convicted of stealing a turkey from William Haskell. It is alleged that Collins and a partner after securing the bird were discovered and paid $15 apiece to Mr. Haskell on the promise that the latter would not prosecute. The matter was settled, but a constable procured the fact and set out to prosecute the men on the original charge of stealing. When he came with a search warrant to recover the turkey, it was hidden under a shock of corn. Then, it seems, the law was tolled. Collins and his partner returned to the former's home to complete the cooking. In the meanwhile Mrs. Collins returned home and threw the bird in the garbage barrel and after all this Collins and his partner had no feast.

IN DRAMA OF THE SOUTHERN PLAINS

Broadhurst and Currie Presented "Texas" to Pleased Audience at the Myers Last Night.

"Texas," a drama of the southern plains, superbly mounted and revealed by a fair cast, pleased a medium-sized audience at the Myers theatre last evening. If the atmosphere of this play is to be accepted, the rangers of the Lone Star state are jolly dogs who specialize in the milk of human kindness and whiskey, tremble in mock or real terror at the reproving voice of a woman; weep when occasion seems to demand it; speak always as if delivering an oration to the distant hills; strut and swagger a bit, and from time to time indulge in such colloquialisms as the Missourian "I reckon," and in such temperate profanity as "Shucks!" There are two villains in the Broadhurst & Currie play—one, a refined rascal, and the other a border ruffian—and they succeed in providing plenty of thrills in the first act, the ruffian, Pasquale, gets his trigger finger shot off by the hero in the second act, he shoots through a window and wounds the hero; in the third act he escapes from prison and steals into the hero's sickroom to complete his dastardly revenge. But "Frostwater Jack" has a presentiment that he is near and the border halfbreed goes down in the final struggle. Lord Angus, the gentlemanly scamp, also gets his kneecaps at the last and all ends happily. Charles E. Graham, gives a breezy characterization of "Tank," the old-timer, and Louis Thiel is very good indeed as harshvoiced, but warm-hearted "Oklahoma." Hattie Foley makes a real motherly Mrs. West, and Mabel Dixie, a charming Texas. Stephen Hoyt earns some laughs as "Chris," the peon servant. Mr. Ely, the manager of the company, won one of the last of the six-day bicycle races for single riders in New York city several years ago.

SELF INTEREST

Our bank is not only safe but it is kept safe by the careful vigilance of the active management. Most banks have good men as officers or directors but it frequently happens that the very men on whom the public depends for safe management do not hold enough stock to have a vital personal interest in the affairs of the bank. There is no interest like self-interest and one of the greatest safeguards that can be thrown around a bank and that which is commonly overlooked is the personal acquisition of large holdings of the bank's stock by the individual officers and directors. Our officers and directors own two-thirds of the stock in this bank.

Mrs. Charles Potter, of 128 Washington St., Janesville, Wis., says: "My husband had kidney trouble for a number of years and it affected his back and limbs so as to keep him complaining all the time with pain. The backache and pain in the joints were especially severe. He used a number of kidney and backache remedies that did not help him and finally seeing Doan's Kidney Pills in a paper I bought them. The pills worked and he is now well and happy. The pains and backache are gone and he has no return of the trouble."

THE LAST GREAT CLOAK SALE OF THE SEASON

FOR ONE DAY--FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16th.

ON this day we shall have with us the representative of one of the largest cloak manufacturers in the west. He will have with him more than four hundred of the late, exclusive styles of Ladies' and Misses' Coats. These, together with our own immense line—more than four times greater than ever before—we will have to show you—a great collection of exclusive models. It will be the most comprehensive showing of Ladies' fine Coats ever brought to Janesville.

In offering the ladies of Janesville and vicinity this great line of Cloaks, our idea is to show them a much larger line of exclusive and fine garments than they could see in any other way.

Selling many of these garments as we do, without the carrying risk, we can afford to sell them on a very close margin, and we will guarantee a positive saving of $2.00 to $10.00, according to price of garment, on every one purchased at this sale.

A complete showing of the popular 50 inch Coat for Ladies—loose back, semi and tight fitting in black, brown and castor; all the newest embroidered, braid and velvet trimmed. Many of them fully lined with black or white satin. Also a great showing of beautiful plaid and check mixtures.

Whether you want to pay $5.00 or $40.00 or any price between for a coat, you cannot afford to miss this sale.

Remember the Date---Friday, November 16th.
